

CHAPTER 1
GENERAL OFFENSES

2-1-1: Missiles; Harmful Items on Streets:

- A. It shall be unlawful to cast, throw or propel any missile, including but not limited to, any dart or arrow, on any street, road, highway or other public place in the Village of Holiday Hills (hereafter “the Village”).
- B. It shall be unlawful to throw or deposit any glass, nails, tacks or other similar articles on any street, road, highway or other public place in the Village.

2-1-2: Illegal Advertising: It shall be unlawful to advertise any unlawful business or article in the Village.

2-1-3: Multiple Family Occupancy of Single-Family Buildings: It shall be unlawful to use for multiple family occupancy, any building constructed as a single-family building, unless such building is in full compliance with all provisions of this Chapter and all other applicable ordinances of the Village relating to the construction of new multiple family buildings before being used for occupancy by more than one family.

2-1-4: Mobile and Temporary Living Conditions Prohibited:

- A. No mobile home, camper, land cruiser, house trailer, nor any motor vehicle or trailer designed or used for living purposes, shall be parked or stored on any lot in the Village, nor shall they be parked or used on any public right of way or park within the Village for camping or living purposes.
- B. Camping overnight is hereby prohibited on vacant lots within the Village.

2-1-5: Barbed Wire; Electric Fences:

It shall be unlawful to maintain or construct any fence composed in whole or part of barbed wire, or with any similar materials, designed or reasonably likely to cause injury to person, or any wire charged with electrical current, anywhere within the Village except to protect industrial property, in which case barbed wire must be at least six feet (6') above the sidewalk and extend inward of property and except on a railroad right-of-way.

2-1-6: Curfew for Children:

- A. It is unlawful for a person within the corporate boundaries of the Village of Holiday Hills who is less than seventeen (17) years of age to be present at or upon any public assembly, building, place, street or highway at the following times unless said person is (1) accompanied and supervised by a parent, legal guardian or other responsible companion at least eighteen (18) years of age approved by a parent or legal guardian; (2) unless engaged in a lawful business or occupation which the laws of this State authorize a person less than seventeen (17) years of age to perform; or (3) unless traveling to or from said business or occupation by the most direct route:

Between 12:01 A.M. and 6:00 A.M. Saturday;
Between 12:01 A.M. and 6:00 A.M. Sunday; and Between 11:00 P.M. on Sunday to Thursday, inclusive, and 6:00 A.M. on the following day.

B. School Curfew:

It shall be unlawful for any person under the age of eighteen (18) who is enrolled in any public, private or parochial elementary or secondary school to be present in any public place, building, street, or assembly, other than school, during any hours when school is in session during the regular school term, unless he or she is:

1. Traveling to or from school by the most direct route, or
2. Engaged in school-related activities with written approval of school authorities, or as otherwise authorized by written school policy, or
3. Engaged in personal business, including but not limited to, employment, medical care, and religious activities, with prior notice from a parent or legal guardian to school authorities.

C. Penalties:

1. If a person between the age of ten (10) years old and the age of eighteen (18) years violates this Section 2-1-6, such offense shall be punishable by a fine of fifty dollars ($50.00) for the first offense and/or community service, and one hundred dollars ($100.00) for a second or any subsequent offense and/or community service.
2. If a person under the age of ten (10) years old violates this Section 2-1-6, the parent, legal guardian, or other person having custody or control of such person shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50.00) for the first offense and/or community service, and one hundred dollars ($100.00) for a second or any subsequent offense and/or community service.

- D. A police officer may stop and detain a person whom the officer reasonably suspects to be violating this Section 2-1-6 for not to exceed fifteen (15) minutes for the purpose of verifying the person's identity, age, school enrollment, and authority to be absent from school. The police officer shall immediately inform the person of the reason for the detention and that he or she will be released upon verification of authorization to be absent from school. The person shall not be removed from the scene of the investigatory detention unless he or she refuses to provide the officer with the necessary information.
- E. A person violating Section 2-1-6 shall, if practical, be taken to school authorities or a parent or legal guardian, and may be issued a notice to appear in court. In addition, or in the alternative to such a course of action, the officer may issue the person in question a notice to appear in Court.
- F. It is unlawful for a parent, legal guardian or other person having custody or control of any person subject to this Section 2-1-6 to knowingly permit such person to violate this Section 2-1-6. [2007 AMENDMENT]

2-1-7: Sale, Use or Explosion of Fireworks Prohibited; Public Displays, Permit Required:

- A. The term “fireworks” shall mean and include any explosive composition, or any substance or combination of sub-stances, or article prepared for the purpose of producing a visible or audible effect of a temporary exhibitional nature by explosion, combustion, deflagration or detonation, and shall include blank cartridges, toy cannons, in which explosives are used, the type of balloons which require fire underneath to propel the same, firecrackers, torpedoes, skyrockets, Roman candles, bombs, or other fireworks of like construction and any fireworks containing any explosive compound, or any tablets or other device containing any explosive substance, or containing combustible substances producing visual effects; provided, however, that the term “fireworks” shall not include snake or glow worm pellets; smoke devices; trick noisemakers known as “party poppers”, “booby traps”, “snappers”, “trick matches”, “cigarette loads” and “auto burglar alarms”; sparklers; toy pistols, toy canes, toy guns, or other devices in which paper or plastic caps containing twenty-five hundredths (.25) grains or less of explosive compound are used, providing they are so constructed that the hand cannot come in contact with the cap when in place for the explosion; and toy pistol paper or plastic caps which contain less than twenty-hundredths (.20) grains of explosive mixture; the same and use of which shall be permitted at all times.
- B. Except as hereinafter provided, it shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly possess, offer for sale, expose for sale, sell at retail, or use or explode any fireworks, provided that the President and Board of Trustees shall have power to adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the granting of permits for supervised public displays of fireworks. Every such display shall be handled by a competent individual approved by the President and Board of Trustees and shall be of such a character and so located, discharged or fired, as not to be hazardous to property or endanger any person or persons. The President and Board of Trustees shall require a certificate of insurance in form and with coverage approved by the President and Board of Trustees or their designate. Application for permits shall be made in writing at least fifteen (15) days in advance of the date of the display and action shall be taken on such application within forty eight (48) hours after such application is made. After such privilege shall have been granted, sales, possession, use and distribution of fireworks for such display shall be lawful for that purpose only. No permit hereunder shall be transferable.

- C. Such permit shall be issued only after inspection of the display site by the applicable fire protection district to determine that such display shall not be hazardous to property or endanger any person or persons. Forms for such application and permit may be obtained from the office of the State Fire Marshall. One copy of such permit shall be on file with the Village, the applicable fire protection district, and one copy forwarded to the office of the State Fire Marshall.
- D. The use of what are technically known as fireworks showers or any mixture containing potassium chlorate, and sulphur in theaters or public halls is hereby prohibited.
- E. Nothing in these regulations shall be construed as prohibiting the manufacture, storage or use of signals or fuses necessary for the safe operation of railroads, trucks, aircraft, or other instrumentalities of transportation.
