

CHAPTER 3
OFFENSES AGAINST AUTHORITY

2-3-1: False Alarms, Calls or Reports: It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly:

- A. Transmit in any manner to the fire department of any city, town, village or fire protection district a false alarm of fire knowing at the time of such transmission that there is no reasonable ground for believing that such fire exists; or
- B. Transmit in any manner to another a false alarm to the effect that a bomb or other explosive of any nature is concealed in such place that its explosion would endanger human life, knowing at the time of such transmission that there is no reasonable ground for believing that such bomb or explosive is concealed in such place; or
- C. Transmit in any manner to any peace officer, police officer or public employee a report to the effect that an offense has been committed, knowing at the time of such transmission that there is no reasonable ground for believing that such an offense has been committed.

2-3-2: Resisting or Obstructing Officer, Employees: No person shall knowingly resist or obstruct the performance by one known to the person to be an officer or employee of the Village of any authorized act within his official capacity.

2-3-3: Obstructing Service of Process: No person shall knowingly resist or obstruct the authorized service or execution of any civil or criminal process or order of any court.

2-3-4: Impersonating Officers, Employees: It shall be unlawful for any person to impersonate without lawful authority any Village officer or employee.

2-3-5: Refusing to Aid an Officer: No person shall upon command refuse or knowingly fail to aid a person known by him to be a peace officer of the Village in:

- A. Apprehending a person whom the officer is authorized to apprehend; or
- B. Preventing the commission by another of any offense.

2-3-6: Use of Force in Resisting Arrest: It shall be unlawful for any person to use force to resist an arrest which he knows is being made either by a peace officer or by a private person summoned and directed by a peace officer to make the arrest, even if he believes that the arrest is unlawful and the arrest in fact is unlawful.
